

What you can do:

Comment period ends June 11, 2003. Please send an email, a fax or a letter to your Senate and Congressional representatives, to the FDA and to HHS and demand that your constitutional and fundamental human health rights not be restricted by a government agency that is heavily influenced by lobbyists for the pharmaceutical industry.

Secretary of Health and Human Services

Tommy G. Thompson

200 Independence Avenue, SW

Washington, D.C. 20201

202_690_7000

Web site: dhhs.gov

HHS can be contacted at web site: hhs.gov/ContactUs.html

Food and Drug Administration

Mark B. McClellan, M.D., Ph.D.

Commissioner of Food and Drugs

U. S. Food and Drug Administration

5600 Fishers Lane

Rockville, MD 20857_0001

1_888_INFO_FDA (1_888_463_6332)

The FDA can be contacted at web site: fda.gov/comments.html

Send comments to Dr. Elizabeth Yetley c/o Nancy Crane: ncrane@cfsan.fda.gov

Contact Federal legislative representatives at all levels at web sites: thomas.gov , your local senate and congressional representatives, house.gov and senate.gov and enter your zip code in the field located on the top left_hand side of the web page. In some districts, you must enter your full nine_digit zip code, but the web site provides a link to the United States Postal Service. After entering your zip code, follow the online instructions for contacting your local representatives.