

Alan Yurko, is in the process of appealing a murder conviction. His premature infant son died from complications within two weeks of his first vaccination. Yurko has been working hard to educate people about the side-effects of vaccines ever since his conviction. He now has expert witnesses available to testify to the relationship between the child's symptoms and vaccine complications.

If they can silence Yurko, they can silence everyone else who tells the truth about vaccines.

For more information:

Questions, and or correspondence can be sent to: The Yurko Project, P.O. Box 585965, Orlando, FL, 32858-5965, or www.freeyurko@bizland.com